

A beautiful Home Wedding.

December 23 was a beautiful day, and at the residence of Mr. S. W. Wessinger a happy event took place at 2:30 p. m. Mr. Thomas E. Wicke, the efficient teacher of Johnstone Academy, was married to Miss Minnie, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wessinger, of the Olivet section of Newberry county.

Everything seemed to be in accord with the season and say, "Be happy." The parlor was beautifully and profusely decorated with evergreens. The guests arranged themselves around the walls, leaving place for the contracting parties with their attendants. These marched in to the sound of the organ as it gave forth the music of the wedding march.

The attendants were Miss Sallie Long with Mr. Noah Moore; Miss Eunice Rose Wessinger, of Lexington county, with Mr. B. S. Derrick; Miss Maude Lee Ethridge, of Saluda county, with Mr. Ambrose A. Wessinger, brother of the bride, and Miss Clara Wicker, sister of the groom, with Mr. Jesse Walter, of Newberry.

The handsome groom led the lovely bride beneath the bell-shaped evergreen suspended from the ceiling where they were made man and wife, Rev. P. H. E. Derrick using the impressive Lutheran order of marriage, pronouncing the words that united them.

I wish I could give the reader a description of the loveliness of these pretty young women as they were all bedecked in spotless white—emblem of purity. It needed to be seen.

This was an old-time wedding. The table was made in the yard, and we adjourned thence and enjoyed ourselves, partaking of the good things which had been prepared in abundance.

The many useful, beautiful and valuable presents which they received give evidence of their popularity.

A PLEASANT RECEPTION.

The day following, December 24, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wicker gave the young people a reception at their home, the old Fair place, just above Prosperity. Here again the inner man was bountifully provided for, and all seemed to enjoy themselves, and one another, some more, perhaps, the other than self—and who can blame?

Well, now, by way of remark, did you ever see so many W's? S. W. W. and W. W. W., enough of them? Yes. Then, too, Mrs. S. W. W. is named Mary, and Mr. W. W. W. is Mary, too. Both men, or the fathers, are both named Walter. The high contracting parties are the oldest in each family.

They have had a merry Christmas; may the new year be a happy one. May they live to see many happy returns of the blessed season of "Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth and good will to men".
